

BLACK CATHOLIC ROSARY ACROSS AMERICA

11th Anniversary

Thursday, January 22, 2009

THE NATIONAL BLACK CATHOLIC APOSTOLATE FOR LIFE, its members and supporters urge you to join in praying for the end of abortion and all acts of violence against the sacredness of life! For peace throughout the world and especially in our communities; for the unity and sanctity of the family; to eliminate the cause of poverty, the hardships associated with bearing and raising children, illness, injustice, oppression, racism and whatever leads to a choice against the sacredness of life. Pray in your meeting place, convent, health care facility or wherever the Lord leads us to pray the Black Catholic Rosary Across America for Life.

The opening Mass will begin on Wednesday, January 21, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, followed by confessions from 10:00 p.m. to midnight; the Rosary for Life at 10:15 p.m., and Night prayers will be recited in the Crypt Church at 11:00 p.m. On Thursday January 22, 2009 Morning prayers begin at 6:30 a.m. followed by the closing Mass at 7:30 a.m and the March for Life at 12noon.
